STANFIELD WILL CONDUCT CAMPAIGN

Stanfield, Ore., Jan. 1.—That he will be his own campaign manager, and have neither headquarters nor assistants but will depend upon the press and advertising columns of the press of the state and personal visits to reach the voters, was the announcement of R. N. Stanfield today in assuming the active work of his campaign for nomination for United States senator on the republican ticket.

He declared he intended to make a very active and vigorous campaign and would devote practically all his time from now until the primaries to the work.

The old political campaign manager system does not appeal to him, and he is going to break away from it entirely.

So far as possible he will personally visit every community and locality in the state and use the newspaper quite freely.

His statement of principles or platform, will be made public about the middle of the month and he expects to conduct his campaign strictly on the principles therein enunciated.

In his statement today he said he was more than satisfied with the outlook and was confident that with the efforts which he intends to devote to the work during the next three months he would be able to secure the nomination.

His first work will be a trip through the Willamette Valley and then Southern Oregon and then back to Portland. He will attend the Irrigation Congress in Portland January 2nd, and the remainder of the week he will spend at Corvallis where he will deliver an address before the Farmers School on the Wool Industry of Oregon.

"Long Sweetening."

Why worry about wheat and sugar as long as there is corn-bread and molasses? Have you forgotten how good this combination tasted when you were a growing youngster? Children have fattened on this ration for generations. Before there was a white sugar, molasses was used on the table and in cooking. It was known as "long sweetening." Now that the demands of a world at war have necessitated the doling out of white sugar by the pound, the old fashioned "long sweetening" is coming back into its own, and housekeepers should hunt up the good old recipes of their mothers and grandmothers.
